

INHALT

Editors' Note	5
Introductory Section	11
Veronika Bernard (Innsbruck and Kufstein/ Austria): The IMAGES project	13
Veronika Bernard (Innsbruck and Kufstein/ Austria): Introduction	17
Testing the Scope – Of Tourists, ‘Selfies’, and Children of the Metropolis	23
Steve Merrell (Oxford/ UK): Feeling Moved – Points of Connection and Separation between Those Who Work to Travel and Those Who Travel to Work	25
Nerma Cridge (London/ UK): Excess Water. On Floods, Architectural ‘Selfie’ and being inside the Rain	39
Yusuf Eradam (Istanbul, Turkey): My sense of belonging to Istanbul	49
Istanbul – The Relativity of a Myth	61
Aytül Papila (Istanbul/ Turkey): From the City of Tales to the Industrial Metropolis: The Changing Images of Istanbul in the Turkish Visual Arts	63

Johannes Marent (Vienna/ Austria): Depicted Walks: An Exploration of Istanbul's Imaginary	71
Theresa Frank (Innsbruck/ Austria): Making and Remaking of the alla Franca versus alla Turca -Myth in Narratives of Istanbul	85
Sercan Şengün (Istanbul, Turkey): Gaze of the Local versus the Other – Images of Istanbul in Video Games	95
Hatice Övgü Tüzün (Istanbul/ Turkey): Orientalism Revisited – Istanbul as a Character in Barbara Nadel's Çetin İkmek Series	105
 Vienna – A Myth and Its Destruction?	 115
Nataša Ivanović (Ljubljana/ Slovenia): The Imaginary Istanbul and the Realistic View of Vienna as Presented by Landscape Painter Lorenz Jansch/ Lovro Janša	117
Veronika Bernard (Innsbruck and Kufstein, Austria): Shadows Larger than Life – The Re-Presentation of Vienna in the Film Version of Gerhard Roth's Reise in das Innere von Wien	125
Mathias Windelberg (Offenbach/ Germany): A Supplementary Map to the Video Installation "Climbing Crag (Klettergarten)"	135
 Istanbul, Vienna and Venice – The Diversity of Perception	 145
Talitha Schepers (London/ UK): Images of Istanbul, Vienna and Venice as Seen through the Eyes of Diplomats and Artists Belonging to Early European Embassies (1400-1600)	147
Roberta Matkovic (Pula/ Croatia): Visions of Other Urban Dimensions. Written Travellers' Experiences	155

---

Venice – Another Myth and Its Destruction?	165
Serenella Sessini (London/ UK): Portraits as Testimonies of Cultural Interconnection between Venice and the East in the Renaissance	167
Wibke Joswig (Berlin/ Germany): Cultural ‘In-betweeness’ in Venetian Images: Gentile and Giovanni Bellini’s Saint Mark Preaching in Alexandria	175
Tanja Habrle (Pula, Pula/ Croatia): The Fire in Venice . Gabriele D’Annunzio’s Experience of the Lagoon	183
Gönül Bakay (Istanbul/ Turkey): Venice as a ‘Sinister City’ in Two Contemporary Novels: Jeanette Winterson’s The Passion and Ian McEwan’s The Comfort of Strangers	193
Peter Volgger (Innsbruck/ Austria): Venice – Archipelago of the 21 st Century?	203
Rear Matter	213
The Editor	215
The Contributors	217